Hi, my name is Lucy. I have a cool monkey called Abu, and it can do many special tricks. Every morning, Abu always gets the newspaper from the front yard for us when we are eating breakfast. When Abu and I are having fun, we often do a “high five.” I taught him once when he was little, and he remembered it right away! Moreover, Abu can dance very well. He can twirl fast with only one leg. Every day after we finish dinner, we always take a walk in the park. You may see people walk dogs, cats, turtles or even pigs, but I think you haven’t seen people walk monkeys! Abu likes to watch people dance in the park, and he can learn their movements in a very short time. People in the park like to dance with Abu, and we always have a good time there. Abu also knows numbers. When you give him scrambled numbers from 1 to ten, he can put them in right order; he can also do some easy math questions.

Abu is my pet. He is my best friend, too. I like him because he always stands by me and listens to my worries. When I’m sad, he always makes me happy. What about you? Do you also have a cool pet?
